

The Friends of the Rochester Hills Public Library invite you to attend a tour of the Royal Park Hotel in Rochester, on Monday, October 28, 2019. All proceeds will benefit Library programs.

You've driven past it a hundred times, you've probably eaten there, and you may have stayed there, but there are a lot of things about the Royal Park Hotel that you can't know until you take a tour. The Royal Park, a luxury boutique hotel designed in an English manor house style, was opened in 2004. The tour will take you through the restaurants, the ballrooms, the library, guest rooms and suites, and more. The tour will end with an included lunch in the Conservatory (spoiler alert: the Conservatory was made in Belgium and shipped to Rochester for installation).

Tour participants will meet in the lobby of the hotel, which is located at 600 E. University in Rochester. Parking is available around the hotel and they also provide valet parking.
