The old stone store is the oldest business on Main Street in Rochester, it was built 1849 in a Greek Revival style. This is the only known commercial building in Michigan built of coursed cobblestone. It was built by Dr. Rollin Sprague when he came to this area from New York.

Home Bakery has been operating in this building since 1930. Today the Home Bakery business is owned and operated by Chef Larry Moravcik. Home Bakery provides award-winning decorated cakes, cookies, and other delicious baked goods to customers from the Rochester area.

The building is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
