X. Other Business

A. On a motion by Ms. Kucher, which was seconded by Ms. Lawson, the board approved expenditures up to $16,000 for four new copiers/printers.

B. On a motion by Ms. Lawson, seconded by Ms. Subbarao, the board approved an updated official RHPL calendar for 2021.

C. Ms. Lawson inquired about plans for Art & Apples and Authors in April. Ms. Morian commented that to her knowledge, Art & Apples was proceeding as planned in September.

D. Ms. Kucher inquired about the Authors in April banquet. Ms. Morian also conveyed that Authors in April will be shifted to a celebration in May. Most of the authors will be visiting the area in-person and ideally at outside venues. The Authors in April banquet was cancelled for 2021, but attendees have an option to purchase tickets in support of this program and receive a tiered package that ranges from swag bags to visits with the authors in May.

E. Ms. Lawson expressed congratulations to Ms. Morian for being appointed to the American Library Association’s Information Technology Policy Advisory Committee and for being asked to chair the next LibLearnX education conference in 2022.

XI. Questions from the Liaisons

A. Ms. Knox-Potts commented that she grateful for the work of the RHPL board members. She also expressed appreciation for the printed version of the board packets at the drive-thru.
B. Mr. Tyler commented that he is pleased to see the new copier/printers will include OCR capabilities. Mr. Tyler also suggested that future agendas could include draft language for action items on the agenda (that would expedite a more complicated motion to approve by supplying possible verbiage). Mr. Bonam agreed and requested Ms. Morian to include draft language for pertinent action items on future agendas.

XII. The regular meeting adjourned at 8:18 pm.

Anne Kucher, Secretary
