1 9 5 2

We, the Falcon Staff, dedicate this book to the Senior Class. It is inevitable that in the process of life the past will be turned to elusive memory. The happy and carefree years that you spent together, you will want always to remember. With this book, we publish a record of your joys and sorrows, your victories and defeats.

Forward

Life is like a sea. In one's early years and those in school, the shore and home is always within sight. Then, when one leaves the school harbor, he drifts out into the open sea to guide and direct his life into another harbor. Whether one's destination be far or near from the starting point, he will look back and remember those people and things that helped him to attain successfully his desired goal.

THERE IS NO DEATH

You call it death--this seeming endless sleep: We call it birth--the soul at last set free. 'Tis hampered not by time or space--you weep. Why weep at death? 'Tis immortality.

Not of the sunlight,
Not of the moonlight,
Not of the starlight!
O young Mariner,
Down to the haven,
Call your companions,
Launch your vessel
And crowd your canvas,
And, ere it vanishes
Over the margin,
After it, follow it,
Follow the Gleam.

National Honor Society

Membership: Fifteen per cent of the graduating class chosen from the upper third in scholastic work. A student-faculty committee figures the points on the application handed in by the student candidate. These points are checked by a faculty committee; the final decision being made by the faculty as a whole.

Qualifications: Candidates qualify for the National Honor Society according to their Service, Leadership, Character, Scholarship, and Citizenship; each of these qualities being graded by points. The number of points depends upon the amount of school recognition given to these attributes and include such as number of hours required for a task, responsibility and dependability of the individual, etc. Points are also given for attendance and citizenship. In order to be considered, a student has to have a citizenship average of at least "2"

Activities: The group sells frostbites, the proceeds being used for the flower fund and club expenses. They also plan and carry out the Honors Conference at which time the group is initiated into the National Honor Society.
