presents the

FALCON

Rochester High School Rochester, Michigan

Our good-bye to the old R. H. S.

Foreword

Forward - - - March

A solemn moment

Our dreams are innumerable. . . some are to be forgotten. . . some are to materialize into the products of a progressive age.

The new high school was once but a dream. Strife. . . hope. . . faith. . . all have contributed to its reality.

The foundation is now a reality; we must continue dreaming. . . hoping. . . striving. . . for the realization of greater "castles in the air."

We dedicate the 1957 Falcon to

Mr. Baldwin

Mr. Johnson

Mr. Huizenga

The Students of Rochester High School are greatly indebted to the administrators.
Their time, concern, and endeavors have built a reality from our dreams.

The Falcon Staff

In one grand movement the student body in grades ten, eleven, and twelve was transplanted from the old school on Wilcox to the modern building on Livernois and Walton Boulevard. Led by the band, the group marched until they stood at the steps of the once nebulous dream. The doors were opened by the Student Council officers, and we began a new life in a new school.

From dreams.....

Lewis Arscott graduated from Rodgers City High School and received his education in engineering at the U. of M. He has spent 13 years on the Board and fills the executive position of president. Pat, Dave and Jimmy, the Arscott children, are also familiar to Rochester.

Board of Education

Dr. Eve Schlecte, the secretary of the Board of Education, attended Iron River High School and later entered the U. of M. She has six children and an established medical practice in Rochester.

Henry Purdy, the man with a smile behind the counter of Purdy's Drugs, has served as trustee on the Board for two years. He has two children, Ellen, a junior at Albion, and Margaret, who will soon be a senior at R. H. S. Mr. Purdy attended Columbiaville High School and the Detroit Institute of Technology.

Mr. Wallace Hodges graduated from Dartmouth with a B. A. Degree in Business Administration. The Hodges family, which includes three children, lives on the spacious farm which lies on the outskirts of town.

Al Musson, the treasurer who is serving his fifth year on the Board, has two children. Diana is a Sophomore at Central Michigan and Lee will soon graduate from R. H. S. Mr. Musson graduated from Edmore High School, received his B. A. at Alma and a M. A. Degree at the U. of M.

MR. DONALD BALDWIN

Mr. Donald Baldwin, superintendent of Rochester Community Schools, graduated from Iowa State Teachers College, University of Iowa, and later received his Masters Degree at the U. of M. He has been superintendent of the Rochester system since 1946.

Administration

MR. HARLAN JOHNSON

The principal of R. H. S., Mr. Harlan Johnson, accepted the position in 1950. He received his Batchelors Degree from Adrian College and secured his Masters Degree at the U. of M.

MR. RICHARD HUIZENGA

Mr. Richard Huizenga attended Western Michigan College and the U. of M., where he received his Masters Degree. He became assistant superintendent after serving as principal of the high school for four years. He has been in the Rochester system since 1946.

1st Row: Sponsors: Mr. Mack, Mrs. Adams. 2nd Row: E. Zumwalt, Secretary, P. Grund, President, J. Hill, Treasurer, M. Stewart, Vice President.

The Sophomore Class initiated its year as it entered a novel Homecoming display. This proved a genuine spirit booster to the class of '59.

Later, an after-game dance was sponsored, adding funds to the class treasury.

In the school-wide care campaign, the class contributed its share by donating $20.

The class's final project for the year was the stupendous "Soph Carnival," full of thrills, spills, and loads of fun.

Truly, this has proved an enjoyable and eventful year for the class of '59!

In Memoriam

CAROLYN HOUCK

BORN MARCH 2, 1940 DIED JUNE 17, 1956

We pause to remember and pay tribute to a friend and classmate. Her friendliness and sincerity remain in the hearts of those who knew her.

"There is an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone,
And there in a light we cannot see
Our Father claims his own.
Beyond the gate your loved one
Finds happiness and rest,
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best."

Seniors

1st Row: D. Huizenga, Treasurer; J. Stone, President; P. Evanson, Secretary; J. VanNocker, Vice President. 2nd Row: Sponsors: Mr. Taylor, Miss Pritzel, Mr. Semble.

The class of '57 embarked upon its high school career vigorously with its freshman mixer and roller-skating parties. Their soaring enthusiasm was displayed as they supported the proposed bond issue for construction of a new high school. As freshmen, the class was victorious with its homecoming float, "The Little Red Schoolhouse." Last, and certainly not least, the class adopted a Korean War Orphan through the "Foster Parent Plan." They supported him by collecting 15¢ a month from each class member.

During their sophomore year, the class maintained its orphan. They sponsored two after-game dances, and a candy sale.

In their junior year, the big event was the J-Hop. The affair brought about a great deal of class participation and spirit. They also continued the support of Kang Yun Jin.

The senior year began with the sponsoring of the year's first after-game dance. In sequence of events, came the Senior Play, the Senior Banquet, and the never to be forgotten trip. As ever, the year's climax was reached in June with commencement.

In all, the class of '57 experienced a memorable four years at Rochester High School.

Sadie Hawkins

Moose turns on the come hither look.

The annual Sadie Hawkins Dance was sponsored by the Conservation Club. The gymnasium was transformed into "The Land of Dogpatch" and the Daisy Maes all captured their Lil' Abners for the occasion. The fellows sported corsages of garden products. Kickapoo Joy Juice, fried grasshoppers and rattlesnake meat were served and couples swamped Marry-in' Sam with requests for marriage, divorce. . .and remarriage!

A lovelier queen, ne'er to be seen.

Homecoming

Her most regal court of 1957.

Coachie takes his little fellows for a romp !!

Homecoming, a day of festive celebration, was held during the afternoon and evening of the final football game. This spirited occasion was a tribute to the football team and highlighted the season with mounting excitement. The ceremonial crowning of our 1956-1957 queen, Patti Evanson, was followed by skits and the announcement of those classes victorious in the skit and display contest.

Evening brought the outstanding contest between the Falcons and Avondale with the outcome another Rochester Victory. The band entertained the crowd during half-time with a remarkable show of formation. Following the game, an open house furnished an opportunity for alumni to view our new school. The Homecoming celebration was concluded by an alumni-student dance the following night.

Another tense moment, and the score goes up a notch.

Spirit mounts with bonfire and snakedance.

Music and memories.

What'za joke Carole?

Intermission capers.

Divin'in in !!

One of our most pleasant activities.

All eyes on this gay group!

After-Game Dance

Highlighting the basket and football seasons this year were the numerous and festive after-game dances. Sponsored by the various clubs and classes, these dances proved to be enjoyable and especially entertaining.

The gals take a breather between dances.

"The verdict?"

"You, Mrs. Lowe,

Senior Play

As one of the most serious plays ever to be presented by a Rochester Senior Class, "The People vs. Maxine Lowe" was a complete and instantaneous success. The play, a courtroom drama, combined suspense, tragedy, and humor to form a very effective plot which held the audience spellbound throughout the whole of the performance.

"I'm innocent,
I'm innocent"!!

Christmas Dance

Fun on the sidelines.

Pretty funny, eh kids? --eh? eh? eh?

The winter season was made complete with the glorious Christmas Dance sponsored by the Student Council. The enchanting decorations, depicting the "Gay Nineties," set the mood.

New arrivals.

"God bless us, everyone."

Christmas Play

The Christmas spirit was at its peak when the Dramatics Class presented Charles Dicken's "Christmas Carol." Students sympathized with the family, and alternately pitied and hated Scrooge. The three spirits, Past, Present, and Future, conveyed the Christmas message.

"Beware Scrooge, beware!"

"Hooray for the Christmas Pudding!"

Yo-hoo! Dosi-do and 'round you go!

A gay time was had by all!

Hey, you!

The handy men are on the job.

The Rochester Dramatics Class produced a delightful comedy filled with humor and uproarious incidents.

The plot revolved around a fun-loving mother and father, who made their home on an island in Puget Sound. Complications arose when the tide came in and carried off the family washing machine. The family finally realized the value in the life they were creating.

This is island life!

The division of the fifty yearbook members into business, typing, literary, followed by the selection of the theme, photographer and printer. The yearbook assembly, produced by Miss Tallant and the dramatics class, successfully stimulated the sales. It is our desire to preserve the experiences so important to us now.

The Girl's Athletic Association is one of the few school organizations that includes both junior and senior high students. The club tries to promote good sportsmanship through the activities of archery, basketball, badminton, bowling, tennis, and softball.

Service Club

The Service Club contributes its time to charitable purposes. Their projects include ushering, distribution of posters and checking hats and coats. Organizations receiving their service are the Kiwanis Club, the Parent-Teachers Association, and school groups. Their efforts in the Christmas Parade and March of Dimes Campaign were greatly appreciated.

Band

The Varsity Band has in past years established a reputation which sets it apart from other high school bands. This year it continued to display musical ability and an overwhelming amount of spirit. Pep assemblies, half-time shows and a trip to the University of Michigan Band Day constituted the fall season. A March concert and annual spring concert completed the active year.

Agricultural experimentation and study are the main activities of the Future Farmers of America Club. In addition to successful projects, the group secured the district championship for parliamentary procedure.

Students interested in nature and its related activities are brought together through the Conservation Club. The organization has built and maintained sixty bird houses, constructed arrows, attended the Sportsman Show, and shot archery. As a whole, the organization has seen a very active and successful year.

The impressive initiation of those wishing to become members of the Future Teachers of America Club began a very active year. The aim of these teachers-to-be is to gain experience in teaching by assisting a teacher in their chosen field. Joint meetings with other clubs, the sponsoring of an after-game dance and the donation of gifts to orphanages were additional features this year.

The Varsity Gridiron Falcons of '56 had a triumphant season of six wins and two loses. The much publicized "Touchdown Trio", consisting of Fred Weaver, Dave Peters, and Dave Eldred, thrilled the crowds game after game with long touchdown runs. Their efforts, combined with the blocking of the hard-charging line and of the fullbacks, Al Bonin and Grahame Hartung, added up to a successful season. The illustrious record was the result of the hard work and co-operation of each man on the squad.

Peter's has the advantage again!

Fourteen wins and two losses constituted the record of the 1957 basketball squad. The Falcons were defeated early in the season and once again when they fell at the strong hands of the Lapeer team. Although they did not progress in the tournaments, the boys compiled a record which speaks of sportsmanship and co-operation as well as ability.

It's anybody's ball!

Our coaching staff is "well-founded!"

Reserve Basketball

1st Row: Mr. Vanzo, L. Hummel, B. Ennis, C. Langdon, H. Hinkel, D. Day, R. Hunt, D. Graybill. 2nd Row: C. Robbins, D. McDonald, M. Kitchen, J. Melstrom, D. Hecht, G. Kitchen, J. Riddle. Absent: Eugene Hohf, John Englert, Don Lothery, Mgr.

A record which will long be remembered was established by the R. H. S. Junior Falcons this year. They left each court an undefeated squad and offer the Varsity team a number of potential dependables.

Baseball

1st Row: R. Robbins, L. Hummel, C. Montross, D. Hecht, D. Peters, F. Weaver, J. VanNocker, T. Jones, J. Riddle. 2nd Row: Mr. McGowan, G. Muster, C. Ebersole, H. Hinkel, K. Purdom, L. Jones, D. Eldred, C. Dudley, P. Townsend, Mr. Eskin. 3rd Row: G. Rouse, B. Blanton, K. Davis, G. Muckenhirn, R. Hunt, L. Genham, J. Crosslin.

At the date of the printing of our book, the baseball team was hard at work in preparation for the initial game. The starting battery will have been selected from pitchers Craig Dudley, Howard Hinkel, Larry Jones, and Dave Peters and catchers Jim VanNocker or Jerry Riddle. As in years past, we are looking forward to a successful season.

As our book goes to print, the track participants are enthusiastically "working-out: in preparation for the heavy schedule which lies ahead. Several have returned from last year to form the nucleus of the team and the addition of new material prophesizes a memorable season.

Golf Team

1st Row: G. Hartung, Coach C. Hartung, J. Stone. 2nd Row: L. Beaupre, R. Morehead, B. Ennis, M. Kitchen.

It is our pleasure to have obtained a picture of the Golf Team for the first year. Although the club has been functioning for several years, the 1957 season has been, by far, its busiest year. The boys receive "pointers" on methods of improving their games, and spend profitable and enjoyable hours on the green.

Cheerleaders

This year's cheerleading squad was increased to eight members, with the girls cheering at both Varsity and Reserve games. The group, definitely a "pep booster" at games and pep assemblies, contributed greatly to our successful rise in school spirit.

1st Row: E. Thompson, J. DeBaene, B. Jones, C. Blum.
2nd Row: M. Eberle, C. Melstrom, S. Seiffert, G. Hood.

ATRONS

Although the production of the 1957 Falcon offered great enjoyment, it also involved much toil. However, our work has materialized into this finished product through the generosity of these fine merchants, who so kindly came to our assistance, that we might have the necessary means with which to make this "Falcon" the finest ever.

Gratefully,

The Falcon Staff
