

Please pardon our dust (and our noise)!

We're updating and upgrading for our next century of service. As we say goodbye to our chairs from the 70s and ignite something new, we appreciate your patience.

Here's what you should know:

NOISE ALERT: Expect noise throughout the library as we work on renovations, especially on the 2nd floor and in Outreach Services.

ADULT & TEEN MATERIALS: You can always ask a staff member for assistance retrieving an item, but some materials may be unavailable during renovations. We encourage you to place holds on items and pick them up on the first floor, at our drive-thru, or at a convenient bookmobile stop.

Magazine Seating Area: Closed September 9–October 4

You may need to ask a librarian to access magazines and periodicals.

Outreach Services: Disruptions on and off beginning September 16

Parts of this area might be blocked for safety and shifting furniture. Please ask a staff member for assistance.

Desktop Computers: Limited access beginning September 9

Teen computers will be unavailable beginning September 9.

Computers near Tech Assistance will be unavailable beginning September 23.

Study Rooms: Closed September 18–October 8

Conference Rooms: Closed September 23–October 4

Check our online calendar (calendar.rhp.org) for updates on program locations.

Teen Area & Collections: Limited access September 23–October 4

Closed to the public. Staff will do their best to locate requested items, but some materials may be unavailable.

Adult Collections: Limited access September 23–October 4

Adult Fiction will be available to browse.

All other adult collections will be closed to the public. Staff will do their best to locate requested items, but some materials may be unavailable.

Quiet Study Area: Open with additional noise

Makerspace: Open by appointment only

Use the staff stairway near the Storyroom in Youth Services for access during appointments and programs.
